PediRhythm

Dear Mr/Mrs

I am contacting you to request your support for the Pedirhythm XII conference, which will be held in Athens in September 10-12, 2026 at the Eugenides Foundation.

This conference is a biennial international meeting of physicians and allied professionals involved in the management of rhythm disorders in pediatric and adult congenital patients. This is the 12th time that this meeting is organized and it has become the premier international meeting for Pediatric and Congenital Electrophysiology. Beyond its interest for pediatric arrhythmia specialists, it will also be of interest for pediatric cardiologists and cardiac surgeons, pediatric cardiac anesthesiologists and cardiac intensivists and also for adult electrophysiologists and cardiologists involved in the care of adult congenital heart disease.

The meeting will be supported by the Society for Pediatric and Congenital Electrophysiology (PACES), which is the official Society for Pediatric Electrophysiology with US and international members.

As the local host and President of the Local Organizing Committee, I am asking for your support at the highest possible level.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Sincerely

Ioannis Papagiannis, MD, PhD, FHRS
